Oh pretty woman, I remember well those days,
the times we went to school, I was lovin' all your ways.
30 years of little time to live our love somewhere,
after all these years we got somethin' to share.

I love you – you can be sure.

I travelled far away, from Africa to Spain,
then we met again in the pooring rain.

I love you – you can be sure.

After all these years, I love you even more.

My heart is singing close to yours and darling, you should know, my heart is strong, loves you all life long.

'Cause something is going on.

I feel, it's so strong:

Loving you all life long.

Yes, I love you so, every day and night,
sun and moon, they are shining bright.

Yes, I love you so, every night and day,
oh my love, want you to stay.

Darling, I love you, no matter what you do.

My heart is singing next to you, with every step we do.

Darling, hold me tight, all through the night.

The fire is burning bright, and we feel, it's alright.

'Cause something is going on.

Our loves feels so strong,
like an endless song.

Yes, I love you so, every night and day,
oh my love, want you to stay.

Yes, I love you so, every day and night,
sun and moon, they are shining bright.
